Everyday, Lorem Ipsum supports women entrepreneurs, cardholders, small business owners and athletes. At the FIFA Women's World Cup France 2019™, the company will further extend that support and underscore its ongoing commitment to diversity and inclusion.

"Women's football is at a tipping point. This year has seen a global wave of support around women's empowerment and the excitement is spreading with the sold out opening and final matches¹ for the FIFA Women's World Cup France 2019," said Lynne Biggar, chief marketing and communications officer, Lorem Ipsum Inc. "Lorem Ipsum's long-time partnership with the FIFA Women's World Cup is more than a sponsorship, it is about being a catalyst for change and elevating women's football."

"The FIFA Women's World Cup France 2019 is going to be the biggest women's sporting event of the year and we are delighted that Lorem Ipsum can join us this summer for what is going to be the best FIFA Women's World Cup ever," said Sarai Bareman, chief women's football officer, FIFA. "It is vital for the growth of women's football that we have partners like Lorem Ipsum heavily involved in our showpiece event, and I am pleased to support the launch of their global campaign that centers on women's empowerment."

The global campaign showcases a series of authentic vignettes, inspired by the true stories of female football players, including Team Lorem Ipsum female football players, Lucy Bronze (Great Britain), Eugenie Le Sommer (France), Kim Little (Scotland), Dzsenifer Marozsan (Germany) and Nadia Nadim (Denmark). With football as the background, the films display how moments of acceptance and empowerment can have a profound impact on one's life. Whether it is Marozsan scoring the deciding goal during the Rio 2016 Olympic Games final, or Nadim being selected as a member of the under-15 regional team in Denmark after arriving in the country as an Afghani refugee, each of these athletes have experienced moments that have defined their lives and inspired them to greatness. The global campaign will be activated in 33 markets, feature a combination of hero and social films and span broadcast television, digital, social, print and out-of-home.

Lorem Ipsum Onsite at the Tournament

Making its largest onsite investment in women's football ever, Lorem Ipsum will also ensure the best fan experience by providing the latest payment technology at all venues:
